Waiting For His Turn. "Seaking of drinking as a cause for eadaches," said an old practitioner, eminds me of a trip I took several ears ago with a special train full of estern physicians going to the annual neeting of the American Medical association in Philadelphia.

"On such occasions as this, with perhaps 150 physicians congregated in a special train, a good many manufac-turers of wines, liquors and carbonated waters are anxious for the opportunity of putting bottled goods on ice, with a representative in charge to see that mples are dispensed at just the right

"On this particular occasion I remem ber that one firm dealing in mineral waters had an especially competent agent on board the train. - Dinner was est over in the dining car, tables had been put up in nearly every section of the sleepers and champagne corks were popping. Redder liquors were on all sides, and the rattle of cracked ice was nearly as loud as the clicking of

"It was just at this juncture that this especial agent for the mineral waters made his hit. He recognized that was not his deal, and he started through the train, beginning at the rear end of the baggage car. With a profound bow to all present he said: 'Good night, gentlemen, good night, but I'll see you in the morning!" "He went through the train with that, making the hit of the whole trip. My greatest wonder at it, too, has been that it has not been selzed upon as an illustrated advertisement for his house."-Chicago Tribune.

"What good does your money do you, Mr. Armour?" a friend once asked P. D. Armour, according to the Washing-

"That is a question," Mr. Armour re plied, "I often ask myself. I was raised a butcher boy. I learned to love work for work's sake. I must get up early now, as I have done all my life, when 9 o'clock comes, no matter what's going on at home, I must get to bed. And here I am. Yes; I have large means, as you say, but I can't eat as much as yonder clerk, I can't sleep as much, and I can hardly wear any more clothes than he. The only real pleasure I can get out of life that yonder clerk with his limited means cannot get is the giving now and then to ome deserving fellow without a soul knowing it $500 or $1,000, giving him a fresh start upward without making the gift a burt to him. That's the only real leasure I get out of life. And as to sions, the only thing I sometimes feel I really own are my two boys and my good name. Take everything else from me, leave me them, and I would yet be rich. I wouldn't care a snap for the rest. We would soon together make enough to keep the wolf a long way from our door.'

There is a story told of a candidate for the pulpit who was preaching an ex tempore trial sermon before the late Archbishop Tait and Dean Stan-

In his extreme nervousness he be gan in a stammering way, "I will divide my congregation into two-the converted and the unconverted.'

This proved too much for the primate's sense of humor, and he exclaimed, "I think, sir, as there are only companies found the whole place deserted. It appeared that, the day being fine, the manager and staff had gone out on a mushroom hunting expedition. Mushroom hunting is a pursuit that appeals to every true Japanese.
